KOOTENAI COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE
September 14, 2009

Deputies from the Kootenai County Sheriff's Department, Back Country Patrol Unit will be providing some educational opportunities for the public later this month.

On September 26th, beginning at 10:00 am, the deputies will be at Cabela's in Post Falls, with an exterior display of their patrol equipment. They will be available to answer any questions regarding backcountry safety, travel and search & rescue topics.

On September 29th, from 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm, the deputies will be at Wholesale Sports in Coeur d'Alene, presenting a short seminar and answering questions related to backcountry safety, travel and search & rescue topics.

Both presentations are free to the public. If you have questions regarding either event, feel free to contact Deputy Jeff Burns or Deputy Will Klinkefus at (208) 446-1300.
